ABOUT ME

I was born in Mumbai and grew up in Mumbai City. Since schooldays had good interest in software development and mathematics(stats). Currently studying in DJ Sanghvi College of Engineering and pursuing my dream of data analyst.

My specialities include quickly learning new skills and programming languages, problem solving nature, deep love for maths and web designing.

So far I have C, Java, Html, Css, JavaScript and little bit knowledge of numpy and pandas under my belt.

Have a good understanding of data structures in C.
